Evaluation of Course Competencies

1. Regular class attendance
2. Participation in class discussion and activities
3. Exams
4. Weekly assignments
5. Key Assessment ~ Curriculum Plan
6. Minimum average score of 75%

Academic Integrity

It is the aim of the faculty of South Plains College to foster a spirit of complete honesty and a high standard of integrity. The attempt of any student to present as his or her own any work which he or she has not honestly performed is regarded by the faculty and administration as a most serious offense and renders the offender liable to serious consequences, possibly suspension.

Cheating: Dishonesty of any kind on examinations or on written assignments, illegal possession of examinations, the use of unauthorized notes during an examination, obtaining information during an examination from the textbook or from the examination paper of another student, assisting others to cheat, alteration of grade records, illegal entry or unauthorized presence in the office are examples of cheating. Complete honesty is required of the student in the presentation of any and all phases of coursework. This applies to quizzes of whatever length, as well as to final examinations, to daily reports and to term papers.

Plagiarism: Offering the work of another as one's own, without proper acknowledgment, is plagiarism; therefore, any student who fails to give credit for quotations or essentially identical expression of material taken from books, encyclopedias, magazines and other reference works, or from themes, reports or other writings of a fellow student, is guilty of plagiarism.

SPECIFIC CLASS REQUIREMENTS

Text book and Materials

Gestwicki, Carol. (2011)

Developmentally Appropriate Practice: Curriculum and Development in Early Education, 4th edition.
Wadsworth/Cengage Learning, ISBN 978-1-111-18554-1

*Three-ring notebook with dividers is also recommended.

Attendance Policy

Students are expected to be punctual and to attend all classes. Attendance will be taken at each class session using the sign-in process. It is the responsibility of the student to sign in during each class. More than three absences from class may result in withdrawal of the student from class. Two incidences of arriving late and/or leaving early will be counted as 1 absence. Attendance records will be considered in the computation of final grades.

Assignment Policy

Students are responsible for reading and being prepared to discuss each assignment. ALL written work is to be turned in on the due date. Grades on work turned in after the due date, up to 2 weeks, will be reduced by 10% per week. After 2 weeks, assignments will not be accepted.

Exam Policy

Exams will be administered only on given dates/times, unless prior arrangements have been made with instructor.

Communication Policy

- Blackboard is an e-Education platform designed to enable educational innovations everywhere by connecting people and technology. This educational tool will be used in this course throughout the semester.
- Outside the Blackboard system, any electronic communication between instructor and students in this course will utilize the South Plains College "My SPC" and email systems. Instructor will not initiate communication using private email accounts. Students are encouraged to check SPC email on a regular basis.

Student Conduct

All students are expected to abide by the standards of student conduct as defined in SPC Student Guide. Please see last page of syllabus for signature form.

Special Requirements

- Cell phones must be turned OFF during class periods unless discussed with instructor, prior to class. This includes auditory alerts and text messaging!!
- Students who have missed class should request make-up materials before or after class. Class time will not be used for make-up concerns.
- Students who find it necessary to drop this course should communicate with instructor and follow through with the official drop process. Students who simply stop attending, and do not withdraw from class, will receive an "F" as a final grade. The last drop date for the college is November 17, 2016.

GRADING POLICY

Grades for this course will be determined using the following systems.

Attendance/Participation	150 points	Final Grades 900-1000 points 90-100% A 800-899 points 80-89% B 750-799 points 75-79% C 700-749 points 70-74% D

ACCOMMODATIONS

Diversity Statement

In this class, the teacher will establish and support an environment that values and nurtures individual and group differences and encourages engagement and interaction. Understanding and respecting multiple experiences and perspectives will serve to challenge and stimulate all of us to learn about others, about the larger world and about ourselves. By promoting diversity and intellectual exchange, we will not only mirror society as it is, but also model society as it should and can be.

Disabilities Statement

Students with disabilities, including but not limited to physical, psychiatric, or learning disabilities, who wish to request accommodations in this class should notify the Disability Services Office early in the semester so that the appropriate arrangements may be made. In accordance with federal law, a student requesting accommodations must provide acceptable documentation of his/her disability to the Coordinator of Disability Services. For more information visit the Disability Services Office at Reese Center, Building 8, or call 806-716-4654.
