E-MAIL: khoelscher@southplainscollege.edu
OFFICE HOURS: M: 1:30-2:30; T: 1:30-3:00 p.m.; W: 8:30-9:00, 11-12:00 and 1:30-2:30; F: 8:30-11:30 a.m.

I. GENERAL COURSE INFORMATION:

A. Course Description: This course is a study of payroll procedures, taxing entities, and reporting requirements of local, state, and federal taxing authorities in a manual and computerized environment.

B. Course Learning Outcomes:

1. The student will develop personnel and payroll records that provide the information required under current laws.
2. The student will process payroll data and tax data and prepare reports.

C. Course Competencies: Grades are based on homework assignments, exams, and payroll project assignments. A minimum grade of “D” is required to pass ACNT 1329.

D. Academic Integrity: It is the aim of the faculty of South Plains College to foster a spirit of complete honesty and a high standard of integrity. The attempt of any student to present as his or her own any work which he or she has not honestly performed is regarded by the faculty and administration as a most serious offense and renders the offender liable to serious consequences, possibly suspension.

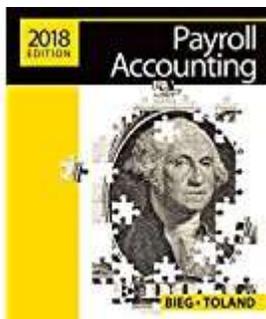

E. Cheating: Dishonesty of any kind on examinations or on written assignments, illegal possession of examinations, the use of unauthorized notes during an examination, obtaining information during an examination from the textbook or from the examination paper of another student, assisting others to cheat, alteration of grade records, illegal entry or unauthorized presence in an office are examples of cheating. Complete honesty is required of the student in the presentation of any and all phases of course work. This applies to quizzes of whatever length as well as to final examinations, to daily reports and to term papers. Dishonesty in any form in this class will result in immediate dismissal and an “F” as the final grade.

II. SPECIFIC COURSE/ INSTRUCTOR REQUIREMENTS

A. Textbook and other materials:

B. Other Course Materials:

1. You will need a basic calculator for homework assignments/in class work, tests, etc.
2. You will also need access to a computer and the internet either at home, or in an SPC computer lab.

C. Attendance Policy: Punctual and regular attendance is required of all students. Missing four consecutive classes or having a total of five absences may result in an instructor-initiated withdrawal. Students are responsible for all missed material. Any student not present at roll taking will be counted absent unless prior arrangements have been made.

D. Professionalism: The courses in your program of study are designed to prepare you for employment in the work world. Businesses require that you behave in a professional manner so you are expected to practice professionalism in class. This includes everything from being courteous to your instructor and fellow students to the use of cell phones and other electronic devices.

III. GRADING POLICY/PROCEDURE AND/OR METHODS OF EVALUATION:

A. Grading Policy

Grades will be determined by the following scale:

A = 90 – 100; B = 80 – 89; C = 70 – 79; D = 60 – 69; F = Under 60

The student's final grade will be calculated as follows:

• Exams (3 Exams)	40%
• Chapter Quizzes	10%
• Homework Assignments	30%
• Payroll Project Assignment	20%

B. Assignment Policy: Students will be expected to complete daily work as assigned. No make-up or late assignments will be accepted; however, the lowest grade will be dropped at the end of the semester allowing for an absence. A "0" due to an assignment not completed WILL NOT be dropped.

If a student is misses an exam, he or she will not be allowed to make up the test unless arrangements are made prior to the test day.

Last day to drop Spring 2019 Semester Classes is April 25, 2019
