Training program. Specifically, they are C1,C3,C6,C7,C9,C11,C12,C14,C15,C16, C18, C19,C20, and F1-F17. References and methods are detailed in the Scans document filed in the office of coordinator of the Automotive Collision Repair Program.

II. Specific course/instructor Requirements

A. Textbook and Other Materials

Textbook: Auto Collision Repair and Refinishing Michael Crandell
Hand tools: see attached/Required Tool List.
Safety Equip: see attached/Required Safety Equipment.
Notebook: Must contain all required course text including handout material

Class Attendance

Excessive absences are a serious problem, and as a part of technical training, good attendance habits are necessary. Positive steps will be taken in this program to develop these habits. The employer demands good work habits, and in order for the student to learn good work habits, our attendance policy will require punctual and regular attendance.

Students are expected to attend all classes in order to be successful in a course. The student may be administratively withdrawn from the course when absences become excessive as defined in the course syllabus.

When an unavoidable reason for class absence arises, such as illness, an official trip authorized by the college or an official activity, the instructor may permit the student to make up work missed. It is the student's responsibility to complete work missed within a reasonable period of time as determined by the instructor. Students are officially enrolled in all courses for which they pay tuition and fees at the time of registration. Should a student, for any reason, delay in reporting to a class after official enrollment, absences will be attributed to the student from the first class meeting.

Students who enroll in a course but have "Never Attended" by the official census date, as reported by the faculty member, will be administratively dropped by the Office of Admissions and Records. A student who does not meet the attendance requirements of a class as stated in the course syllabus and does not officially withdraw from that course by the official census date of the semester, may be administratively withdrawn from that course and receive a grade of "X" or "F" as determined by the instructor. Instructors are responsible for clearly stating their administrative drop policy in the course syllabus, and it is the student's responsibility to be aware of that policy.

It is the student's responsibility to verify administrative drops for excessive absences through MySPC using his or her student online account. If it is determined that a student is awarded financial aid for a class or classes in which the student never attended or participated, the financial aid award will be adjusted in accordance with the classes in which the student did attend/participate and the student will owe any balance resulting from the adjustment. When absences exceeded more than 10% of total class hours and it is determined the student cannot pass the course the student will be asked to withdraw.

Absence for Military Service

In accordance with Texas Education Code Section 51.9111, a student is excused from attending classes or engaging in other required activities, including exams, if he or she is called to active military service of a reasonably brief duration. The maximum time for which the student may be excused has been defined by the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board as "no more than 25 percent of the total number of class meetings or the contact hour equivalent (not including the final examination period) for the specific course or courses in which the student is currently enrolled at the beginning of the period of active military service." The student will be allowed a reasonable time after the absence to complete assignments and take exams.

Religious Holy Days

In accordance with Texas Education Code Section 51.911, South Plains College will allow a student who is absent from class for the observance of a religious holy day to take an examination or complete an assignment scheduled for that day within seven (7) calendar days after the absence. Students are required to file a written notification of absence with each instructor within the first fifteen (15) days of the semester in which the absence will occur. Forms for this purpose are available in the Dean of Students Office along with instructions and procedures. "Religious holy days" means a holy day observed by a religion whose place of worship is exempt from property taxation under Texas Tax Code Section 11.20.

Pregnancy

In accordance with Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, in the event of pregnancy, termination of pregnancy or recovery from any of these conditions a student's absences shall be excused, as deemed necessary by the student's physician (Title IX.) The student should contact the SPC Title IX coordinator for further assistance. .

C. Assignment Policy

1. All required work must be turned in on time. Work turned in late will be a zero.
2. There will be no excused late assignments.
3. The instructor will give chapter assignments. Questions at the end of the chapter will be graded on a percent basis.
4. Makeup work will be offer and will be handed out no earlier than noon on Friday and is due on the following class day at but no later than 8:00 Am
5. A student is allowed five absences. Students exceeding five absences will automatically be given a failing grade. Four tardies will be equal to 1 absence.

D. Examination Policy

1. Tests will be given by the instructor on all chapter assignments once that unit has been reviewed.
2. Prior notification of quizzes may or may not be given.
3. Final exams will be given to all students covering lectures and instruction for the entire semester.

E. Grading Policy

1. Test
 - a. Results of daily or unit test will be given a percent grade. (20% of final grade)
