Class Location: This class meets in the PE building in room 112.

Course Description: PHED 1117 is an introductory course on the correct techniques used to perform and how to spot basic weight training exercises. Training principles, nutrition, and physiological adaptations to exercise will be covered. We will discuss safety precautions and the importance of flexibility associated with weight training.

General Rules

- No tobacco products
- Students must wear proper workout attire
- The gym is a water only facility (It is suggested to bring a water bottle to class)
- No foul language.

Textbook: Spiral Notebook to keep a log of each day's prescribed workout.

Course Objectives:

1. Describe and demonstrate the proper techniques and training principles used to perform the exercises taught in class.
2. Describe and demonstrate the proper safety precautions and spotting techniques for weight training exercises.
3. Identify and explain the main function of major muscles used in various weight training exercises.

Evaluation and Grading:

All of the following MUST BE COMPLETED before receiving a grade in the course.

Written exams: Two exams will be given, a mid term and a final. The final exam will be cumulative and given on the LAST DAY OF CLASS

Mid-term: 20 %

Final: 20 %

Attendance: 60%

Make-ups for the midterm, final, and practical exams will be given only with prior notification.

Practical exams: Two practical exams will be given. The final practical exam will be during the last week of class.

Mid-term practical: 20 points

Final practical: 20 points

Content for the practical portion will include demonstration of one of the exercises taught in class, naming of the muscle groups involved, discussion of key points for successfully performing the lift, and correct spotting techniques.

Participation: Two points will be given for each day you attend and participate in a skills learning or lecture session.

Attendance Policy:

1. There are no excused absences. Please do not badger your instructor for a special exemption.
2. If a student has a fourth absence, there will be a one-letter grade penalty subtracted from the final grade in the course.
3. After five absences, the student will be dropped from the class with an "X".
4. If 5th absence occurs after the drop date, you will receive and "F" for the course.
5. You must be on time to class!
6. Three "tardies" = ONE absence.
7. Your instructor will make a notation in the grade book of the number of minutes the tardy involved. He will determine if it will be recorded as a tardy or an absence according to the amount of the workout that has been missed.

Grading Scale:

A=90-100 B=80-89.9 C=70-79.9 D=60-69.9 F=00-59.9

Grade progress report will be at mid-term and/or at the student's request.
