Specific Course/Instructor Requirements:

A. Textbooks:

1. Milady's Standard Textbook of Cosmetology.
2. Milady's State Exam Review for Cosmetology.
3. Milady's Standard Theory Workbook.
4. Milady's Standard Practical Workbook.

Attendance Policy:

Punctual and regular attendance is required of all Cosmetology students. Unexcused tardiness and absences will not be tolerated. A doctor's note stating that it is safe to return to school in cases of contagious diseases such as pink eye, strep throat or flu is required. If more than 5% (8 hours) of this course is missed, student will have to attend make-up days. If student refuses to attend make-up days, then student may be at risk of being withdrawn due to excessive absences. Please refer to the SPC Cosmetology Handbook for more information.

Assignment Policy:

All required work must be turned in on time in order that the student may benefit from the corrections and future examinations. Assigned outside work is due on the class period assigned. Late work is generally not accepted; however special consideration is subject to instructor discretion whether or not the work will be accepted. This syllabus includes chapters 1-4.

Grading policy/Procedure/Methods of Evaluation:

See the General Catalog "Grades and Reports" for explanation of grades and grade point averages. The course instructor will introduce the college grading policy and method to determine G.P.A. during the course of instruction. The Texas Department of Licensing and Regulation demands an overall minimum grade of 70; therefore this course requires the same. An overall grade below 70 is considered an F.

Special requirements/Safety Policy:

Students shall adhere to the safety standards established by the Texas Department of Licensing and Regulation, South Plains College and the Cosmetology handbook. Students in Cosmetology must follow all safe practices in laboratory work areas and other specific topics (dress code, cell phones, etc.) refer to the cosmetology Handbook.

Accommodations:

South Plains College strives to accommodate the individual needs of all students in order to enhance their opportunities for success in the context of a comprehensive community college setting. It is the policy of South Plains College to offer all educational and employment opportunities without regard to race, color, national origin, religion, gender, disability or age (SPC Equal opportunity Policy General Catalog).

Diversity Statement:

In this class, the teacher will establish and support an environment that values and nurtures individual and group differences and encourages engagement and interaction. Understanding and respecting multiple experiences and perspectives will serve to challenge and stimulate all of us to learn about others, about the larger world, and about ourselves. By promoting diversity and intellectual exchange, we will not only mirror society as it is, but also model society as it should and can be.

ADA Statement:

Students with disabilities, including but not limited to physical, psychiatric, or learning disabilities, who wish to request accommodations in this class should notify the Disability Services Office early in the semester so that the appropriate arrangements may be made. In accordance with federal law, a student requesting accommodations must provide acceptable documentation of his/her disability to the Disability Services Office. For more information, call or visit the Disability Services Office through the Guidance and Counseling Centers at Reese Center (Building 8) 716-4606, or Levelland (Student Services Bldg) 716-2577.
