GOVERNMENT 2306 GENERAL OBJECTIVES AND PURPOSE

Government 2306, as taught at South Plains College, is a reading intensive course designed to acquaint the learner with the history, theory, and evolution of Texas government through a survey of the institutions and processes that comprise it. The course meets statutory requirements as set forth by the state of Texas.

Textbook:

The State of Texas: Government, Politics, and Policy (ISBN# 9781259548215) – Sherri Mora and William Ruger

Learning Outcomes: Upon successful completion of this course, students will:

1. Explain the origin and development of the Texas Constitution.
2. Demonstrate and understanding of state and local political systems and their relationship with the federal government.
3. Describe separation of powers and checks and balances in both theory and practice in Texas.
4. Demonstrate knowledge of the legislative, executive, and judicial branches of Texas Government.
5. Evaluate the role of public opinion, interest groups, and political parties in Texas.
6. Analyze the state and local election process.
7. Describe the rights and responsibilities of citizens.
8. Analyze issues, policies, and political culture of Texas.

GRADING AND COURSE REQUIREMENTS

1. Three major exams (which include the final exam) will be conducted during the semester. Exams will adhere to the format outlined by the instructor. The first two major exams will be worth 100 points each and the last exam (taken the final week of the semester) will count as 50 points. Failure to take the last exam will result in the grade of “F” for the course. Each exam will contain a “critical thinking” writing component.

2. Two Reading Exams will be administered during the course of the semester. Each reading exam will count as 25 points for a total of 50 points. Absolutely no make-ups on reading exams! Failure to take the reading exam on the scheduled day and time will result in the grade of “0” for that particular exam. There are no exceptions to this policy.

ARRIVING AT FINAL COURSE GRADE

Exam	Grade
1	100
2	100
Reading Exams (2) 25 pts. each	50
Final Exam	50

	300/3 = 100

GRADING SCALE

90 – 100 = A
80 – 89 = B
70 – 79 = C
60 – 69 = D
Below 60 = F

ATTENDANCE POLICY (Read Carefully!)

College policy regarding attendance can be located within the school catalog. An attendance roster will be circulated at the beginning of each class period for the student to sign. It is the student's responsibility to make sure his/her name is registered on the roster. Failure to sign the roster, for whatever the reason, will result in the student being counted absent for that class period. The instructor's attendance policy will be the following (no exceptions):

2. M/W classes – on the fifth (5) absence the student will be dropped with an X.

*I suggest you closely monitor your attendance. If you quit attending the class it is your responsibility to complete the "drop". If I drop you from the class it will be with an X.

TARDY POLICY (Read Carefully!)

Being late for class is unacceptable for any reason. Tardiness is disruptive to the classroom setting and will not be tolerated. Do Not enter the classroom after the door is closed. A STUDENT WHO ENTERS THE CLASSROOM AFTER THE DOOR IS CLOSED WILL AUTOMATICALLY BE DROPPED FROM THE COURSE WITH AN "X." If you cannot arrive on time for a particular class, you may sit in on another class. In addition, the student is not allowed, for any reason, to leave the class early.

Personal Responsibility:

Each student will be provided a handout entitled "Course Syllabus Agreement". The student will read/comprehend the statement; then sign/date the handout.

Social Responsibility:

There will be a "Social Responsibility" component to the course. Social responsibility will adhere to the format outlined by the instructor.

MAKE-UP POLICY FOR MAJOR EXAMS

Missing the two major exams is strongly discouraged. A student will only be allowed to take a make-up exam if he/she has a legitimate excuse for missing the major exam. The only two legitimate excuses recognized by the instructor are sickness and a death in the family. The student must present the instructor a doctor's note to prove sickness; or provide an obituary concerning a death in the family. Otherwise, the student will receive a "0" for that particular exam. There are NO EXCEPTIONS to this policy.

CELL PHONES AND ELECTRONIC DEVICES

Cell phones and all electronic devices will be turned off (silent) upon entering the classroom. They will remain turned off, put away and out of my sight until the class is dismissed each day. Failure to comply with this policy will lead to dismissal from class and an automatic absence for that day.
