History 1301

Revised December 10, 2024

Department: Social Sciences

Discipline: History

Course Number: HISTORY 1301

Course Title: United States History I

Credit: 3 Lecture, 0 Lab

This course partially satisfies a core curriculum requirement: American History Foundational Component Area (060)

Available Formats: Conventional (Fully Face-to-Face), Fully Online, Hybrid, ITV

Campus: Levelland, Downtown Center, Plainview, Dual Credit

Textbook: Varies according to instructor.

Course Specific Instructions: Each instructor will attach his/her course with specific instructions.

Course Description: A survey of the social, political, economic, cultural, and intellectual history of the United States from the pre-Columbian era to the Civil War/Reconstruction period. United States History I includes the study of pre-Columbian, colonial, revolutionary, early national, slavery and sectionalism, and the Civil War/Reconstruction eras. Themes that may be addressed in United States History I include: American settlement and diversity, American culture, religion, civil and human rights, technological change, economic change, immigration and migration, and creation of the federal government.

Course Objectives addressed:

1. critical thinking: to include creative thinking, innovation, inquiry, and analysis, evaluation, and synthesis of information.
2. communication: to include effective development, interpretation and expression of ideas through written, oral and visual communication.
3. social responsibility: to include intercultural competence, knowledge of civic responsibility, and the ability to engage effectively in regional, national, and global communities.
4. personal responsibility: to include the ability to connect choices, actions, and consequences to ethical decision-making.

Student Learning Outcomes: Upon successful completion of this course, students should be familiar with the evolution of American political, social, and economic institutions and traditions from the arrival of Europeans to the mid-nineteenth century. This would include the ability to:

- Create an argument through the use of historical evidence.
- Analyze and interpret primary and secondary sources.
- Analyze the effects of historical, social, political, economic, cultural, and global forces on this period of United States history.

Student Learning Outcomes Assessment: A writing assignment rubric will be used to determine the extent of improvement that the students have gained during the semester.

Course Evaluation: See the instructor's course information sheet for specific items used in evaluating student performance.

Attendance Policy: Students must make every effort to attend face-to-face courses. Whenever absences become excessive and in the instructor's opinion, minimum course objectives cannot be met due to absences, the instructor may recommend that the student withdraw from the course. Each instructor will have additional information about attendance on his/her course information sheet.

Dropping a Course: Students may drop courses through Texan Connect, the Admissions and Records Office, or Advising and Testing Center through the late registration period.

After late registration has closed, a student must complete the online Student Initiated Drop Request to drop a course.

Students may also drop courses in person at any campus location by completing a Student Initiated Drop Form. Complete a Student Initiated Drop Form and return the signed form to the Levelland Admissions and Records Office, the Student Support Center at the Lubbock Downtown Center, the Lubbock Career and Technical Center, or Plainview Center. You must have a picture ID to complete the drop.

A mark of "W" will be given for student-initiated drops that occur prior to and through the last day to drop as indicated in the online Academic Calendar found here: <https://www.southplainscollege.edu/academiccalendar/index.php>.

The textbook for this course is an Open Educational Resource (OER) meaning, access is open and free of charge for all users online. If you would like to purchase a hard copy of the textbook, please contact the publishers.

SUPPLEMENTAL MATERIALS:

I will occasionally assign additional readings such as journal articles, primary sources, or videos. Those will always be posted digitally to Blackboard for the appropriate week.

WHY:

"We are not makers of history. We are made by history." --Martin Luther King, Jr. (1963)

Course Objectives/Learning Outcomes:

- Identify political, economic, geographic, and social characteristics of eras in American history.
- Analyze the connections between past events and the context in which they occurred.
- Examine and analyze primary and secondary sources to better understand the issues and events surrounding eras in American history.
- Develop research and critical reading skills.
- Develop argumentative writing skills and implement proper grammar and mechanics to communicate in writing.
- Effectively express one's ideas and interpretations of the past through class discussions and written assignments.
- Receive appropriately and consider the ideas and interpretations of others about the past.

HOW:

Students will be evaluated on evidence of content understanding through skills assignments, consistent and active participation, quizzes, and tests.

Grading Categories	Grading Breakdown
Video Meet &amp; Greet: In order to build an online community of kindness and collaboration, students will submit video introductions and greet one another. Policy Acceptance Quiz: Using the syllabus and course tour video, students will review policies and procedures for the course.	Intro Video 25 points Policy Quiz 15 points 40 points
History Labs: The work of historians includes two main skills: (1) critically reading primary and secondary source materials and (2) analytical writing about such materials and the past. We will apply these skills to class content throughout the semester.	6 @ 40 points = 240 points
Reflective Learning Analysis: (RLA) In these assignments, the student will produce a reflective essay as a checkpoint for understanding. Each RLA should be 400 words (+10%/-10%). In the essay, the student may address the questions: What have you learned so far? How does the content of the lessons connect to the world around you? What evidence have you found most interesting and why? What questions do you still have?	5 @ 40 points = 200 points
History Media Literacy: (HML) Students will engage with popular and scholarly media through varied assignments. Students will apply reading skills of stamina, summary, critical analysis, media literacy, active reading, and source evaluation. A group discussion via Collaborate will be offered to discuss student learning at the end of the semester.	5 @ 30 points Video discussion 70 points 220 points
Quizzes: Quizzes will be based primarily on assigned reading. However, some quizzes may include content from class discussions and additional materials from in-class meetings. Quizzes may include multiple-choice and/or short-answer responses. All quizzes are 90 minutes and students have two attempts - the higher score is recorded	8 @ 50 points = 400 points
Grading Summary: A= 1100-900 points B= 899-800 points C= 799-700 points D= 699-600 points F= 599-0 points	Total Points Available- 1100 *Please note, there is a "bonus" of 200 points available on top of 900 minimum for an "A." This is intentional and serves as a built-in method to recover credit for lower grades. Please do not ask for "extra credit", make up work, or late submissions as it is built into the grading structure.

Everything Else:

Dual Credit Grade Calculations: Most high schools request that SPC assign a number grade for transcript reporting. This course is based on a points scale. Your total points can be divided by 10 and that will calculate your number grade. While I provide 1100 points of assignments, I can only assign a maximum of 100 points as a number grade. See below for some examples of calculations.

677 points = 67% = D

893 points = 89% = B

922 points = 92% = A

1093 points = 100% = A

Academic Dishonesty:

Academic dishonesty commonly comes in the form of cheating or plagiarism both of which are addressed below, however, twenty-first-century students are clever in finding new ways to avoid doing work. Therefore, it is at the instructor's discretion to determine what qualifies as academic dishonesty and respond accordingly. Academic dishonesty can result in reduced credit, a zero, withdrawal from the course, or disciplinary action as outlined in the SPC code of conduct.

- Cheating: Cheating can include using unpermitted materials to complete an assignment, quiz, or test. Copying answers from another student or past class materials, or allowing others to use your class materials for their own nefarious purposes. Students must acknowledge all work assigned is to be completed individually unless otherwise noted.
- Plagiarism: Plagiarism is the intentional or unintentional use of another person's written or creative work without proper citation or credit. More accurately it is, "an act or instance of using or closely imitating the language and thoughts of another author without authorization and the representation of that author's work as one's own, as by not crediting the original author."<sup>1</sup> In other words, if you copy someone else's work (including internet sources) and claim you wrote it, you are plagiarizing. This includes AI technology such as OpenAI, ChatGPT, or similar programs. Do not waste my time with plagiarism, my time on earth is limited and tracking down AI evidence is not how I want to use minutes of this finite existence. If I am forced to do so, I will be angry, bitter, and lacking in mercy. Consider yourself warned. *ALERT* Instructors have digital tools and the basic intelligence to easily detect plagiarism, you WILL get caught eventually and the consequences can damage your collegiate career, so just don't do it. This is a serious offense and will be handled accordingly. Any work suspected of AI or other types of plagiarism will receive an automatic ZERO. If you would like to challenge a zero on a submission, you may schedule an in-person opportunity to submit an alternate written assignment designed by the instructor to verify mastery of the concepts.

Absences/Late or Missed Assignments:

- Absences: This course is 100% online and there is no face-to-face attendance required. It is your responsibility to manage your time and develop a schedule to complete all work ON TIME. The choice to participate in dual credit courses means the student accepts the responsibility of time management at a college-level. High school schedules, events, activities, etc are not taken into consideration by South Plains College and do not constitute a justification for late or missing work.

**Student-Athletes or Extracurricular Participants: If you have a scheduled absence that interferes with a class assignment or deadline, it is your responsibility to submit the assignment before you depart. Late work will not be accepted for school trips or extracurricular activities.

- Late Work: Late work will not be accepted without a documented emergency, illness, or verified problem with the Blackboard server. Again, if there is a problem submitting an assignment it is the responsibility of the student to contact the instructor via email BEFORE the deadline passes. All late assignments meeting the criteria above are subject to reduced credit.

Technology Statement: Technology failures or difficulties are not valid excuses for late or missed assignments unless it is a verifiable Blackboard server problem. if you are submitting an assignment minutes before a deadline and there is a technical problem, that is an unfortunate consequence of your procrastination. In other words, do not wait until the last minute to submit an assignment. An excellent scholarly citizen turns in work in a timely manner that allows for solving any technical problems.

Furthermore, it is the responsibility of the student to double-check that all assignments are posted or submitted properly.
